Parking Problem Aired

by Jack J. Hurley

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of two articles dealing with the current parking problem on campus. The first deals with some of the action that is presently being taken while the second will offer suggestions for a solution that have been made in the past.

Last month's suspension of 114 student parking violators not only sent campus tempers soaring and aroused the attention of New York newspapers and TV stations but it also started some people on the road to constructive thinking.

The "parking problem" is not easily solved nor is it confined to one set of facts. In a sense it is a multi-legged monster that encompasses the pitfalls of space limitation, city zoning laws, community relations, money, student cooperation and many other hindering factors.

In the hopes of clearing up some misconceptions that have arisen from last month's action and to present the various proposals that have been made for the problem's solution, the Scribe has interviewed members of the administration and students concerned with the question.

Immediate action has been taken to correct the method used last month in dealing with scofflaws. Instead of wholesale notification, Floyd I. Brewer, director of Student Personnel, has suggested that the violating student be informed, after he does not appear during the 48 hour single fine period, that he has one week in which to pay his fine.

If the fine is not paid within that time suspension action will be taken. Under this plan, which will go before the Parking Committee this week, the student could not feel that he had been given insufficient time or notification.

Ironically enough, lack of funds is not a valid excuse for not appearing at the Bursar's Office. Theodore W. Nowlan, chairman of the Parking Committee, stated that if the student didn't have the money to pay at the time of his violation that arrangements would be worked out. He further felt that it was the students' complete indifference to repeated violations that warranted last month's action.

Brewer's plan would be administered by a graduate student working in the Office of Student Personnel and not a scholarship student.

In search of a more immediate answer, the Scribe suggested in an editorial on April 26 that a car registration fee should be charged by the University and that this money could be used to provide suitable parking sites in the future. Commenting on the editorial, Nowlan felt that the idea had a great deal of merit and with the funds from the fee an area outside the class A zone could be purchased.

Nowlan, a member of the College Physical Plant Administrators, added that the parking problem is not restricted to the University alone. He states that in many schools there are higher violation fees—in one university it is $50—and that many schools do not provide parking facilities at all. A prime example of this situation is found at Yale University where city police have cars towed away at the expense of the owner for overtime parking.

Another stumbling block is posed by local citizens who hope to maintain the class A residential rating around the campus. It had been suggested in the past that students refrain from parking in driveways throughout the neighborhood in an effort to cultivate better student-citizen relations. On this point there has been little or no advancement.

This has been a review of the things that are being done at this moment to help the situation. The next article will discuss past suggestions to lick the situation along with ideas that might bring about a basis for further action and planning.

2,000 See Crowning of Queen At Colorful Wistaria Pageant

More than 2,000 people attended the Wistaria pageant at Marina circle Sunday.

Written and directed by Albert A. Dickason, the pageant climaxed the University's traditional Wistaria weekend, which began Friday evening with the Wistaria ball and included alumni homecoming activities on Sunday.

Colorful pageantry was combined with song, dance and comedy to carry out the theme "Spring Cleaning", and the shirt-sleeved audience responded enthusiastically.

Foreboding rain clouds which had threatened a possible postponement cleared before the show began, keeping intact Dickason's record of never having to cancel the show.

The University's statuesque Wistaria queen, Jane Trattner, and her court were presented to the audience at the beginning of the performance and occupied a position of honor to the right of the pageant stage.

Diane Bulkin Gelfand, last year's Wistaria queen, placed the crown on the head of Miss Trattner. William Bevacqua then sang a song written especially for the new Wistaria queen by UB student Michael DeVivo.

Members of the queen's court were: Yolanda Delmore, Norma Busk, Josephine Cassarino, Lois Schwartz, Doris Schwartz, Ruth Nodland and Pauline Sorel.

Featured roles were played in the pageant by Deborah Pensak as "Ergal", the spirit to clean and work and Lucy Wisinski as "Daydream."

Others were: Geraldine Bennett, "cowgirl"; Charles Potkay, "matador"; Robert Ruge, "Richard"; Sue Portnoy and William Bevacqua, "Southern singers"; Honey Walsh and Dianne Jacobson, "mues"; Judy Youman, "Gypsy dancer"; Roger Vars and William Downing, "cave men"; James Quigley, Jr., "Irish tenor"; Stanley Luby, "Sherlock Holmes"; Edith Wilson, "Peggy Brunell"; Charles Kopin, "Henry Brunell"; Jeri Sheslow, "Sally Brunell"; David Ullman, "Archibald Brunell".

Also, June Bartram, Dolores Ludka, Robert DuCharme, Joseph Messineo, as the chorus;

Carol Denalsky, Marianne Lacy, Ann Grancaji, Caryl Blank, Mitzi Vass, Mary Ann Cuccia, Madolyn Pugh, Nancy Lazarus, "Irish girls"; Richard Bock, David Marks, Edward Morrison, William Bartlett, Frank Jawoisz, John Reed, Steve Grasso, "people of Spain"; Jeanette Bialko, Elaine Clapp, Ruth Ann Langán, Lorraine Lamay, Jay Mohyde, Elaine Smetana, "Southern girls"; and the dancing class of Jean Sturrock Mead.

Dr. Clarence D. L. Ropp, dean of the College of Arts and Science, extended greetings to the audience.

Staff members for the pageant included: Charles Rasmussen, business manager; Marguerite Scott, costumes; John Reed, makeup; Jack Zalkind, production assistant; Joseph Bacevicius, art design; Elmer Maher, sound; Theodore W. Nolan, stage and grounds; Gerald Bennett, assistant in choreography; Victor E. Muniec, publicity; Adeline Meath, production accompanist; Zita Carrano, direction of Southern dancers; Sime Neary, direction of "cave men" dance; Jean Sturrock Mead, direction of "modern jazz dance"; and Johnny Coy, direction of "matador" dance.

Music was provided by the orchestra of Gus Meyers, Jr.

Art Students' Works Hang In Alumni Hall

The art students of the University are now presenting a selection of their works in connection with Wistaria Weekend.

The exhibition of their works on the walls of the lounge on the second floor of Alumni Hall has been open since May 4 and will continue to be exhibited to May 18.

The exhibits are labeled according to specific course offerings at the University. The various phases of art education, which are on exhibition, are: elementary drawing and painting, intermediate drawing and painting, color and design, figure drawing, commercial design, elementary art education and ceramics.

Dumbfounded! Says Winner Of Fulbright

by Suzanne Hinck

"I was completely dumbfounded when I received the news that I had won the Fulbright," exclaimed Fulbright scholarship winner, Emily A. Forte. "It was only because of the encouragement that Dr. John Rassias gave me that I entered in the first place," she explained.

She was awarded the scholarship recently to study at the University of Poitiers in France next fall where she will study the psychological French Catholic novel.

A petite brunette with a warm smile and keen dark eyes, Miss Forte spends her free hours reading, playing Beethoven on the piano, swimming and playing tennis. She also designs and sews many of her own clothes. She confided that she wants to be a dress designer eventually.

"Literature has always been my favorite subject. In fact this is what made me go on with my French in college. There is great beauty in the literature of France," Miss Forte commented.

A dean's list student, she is active in the French Club, the Spanish Club, Newman Club and Senior Honorary Society. She has been affiliated with the University chorus, secretary of Women's House Government, the Music Club and was historian of Theta Epsilon sorority.

FEMALES TO HAVE CARS!

According to Dean of Women Claire Fulcher, upperclass resident women will be permitted to have cars on campus next semester. Students must contact Dr. Fulcher before bringing cars to campus. Any violations of campus car regulations will automatically revoke the special permission granted.

CONVOCATION SWITCH

The administration has announced that the Army Reserve Convocation, previously scheduled for May 15 at 10 a. m. in T-101 has been changed to 11 a. m. in T-201 on the same date.

June 1 Date Set For Senior Prom

The Senior Class Prom will take place Friday, June 1, at the Paterson Country Club in Westport at 9 p. m. announced senior class chairman Sam Goldberg. A picnic will follow on Saturday, June 2, beginning at 4 p. m. at the old Arnold campus in Milford.

After graduation exercises, Sunday, June 3, coffee will be served in Alumni Hall for parents, friends and graduates. The charge for the entire weekend festivities will be $7 and tickets will be sold beginning Monday, May 14, in the Student Activities Office.

There will be a senior class meeting for all 1956 graduates and both the two and four year students expecting to graduate are invited to attend. The meeting will be held in Alumni Hall on Tuesday, May 15.

Davins Turns Pro Signed by Braves

The Milwaukee Braves signed Jimmy Davins, of New Haven, a 22-year-old senior at the University to a contract with Austin of the Texas league.

He is to report to the club on or about June 1.

Davins, a shortstop, was elected captain of this year's baseball team, but for failing to report for practice in Spring training, he was dropped from the squad.

Brewer Asks To Eliminate Yearbook Pix

Student leaders on campus are being invited by Floyd Brewer, director of student activities, to attend a Student Council meeting Tuesday, at 10 a. m., to air their views on a proposal to eliminate individual undergraduate pictures in the University yearbook, the Wistarian.

Reasons for the proposal cited by Brewer and Wistarian advisor are: the budget expends a large portion on the mentioned section, the undergraduate section places a heavier workload on the Wistarian staff than any other portion of the yearbook, more room is needed for special features and organizational pictures, the machine photos when reproduced are not satisfactory, and the Student Council wants to set up a laminated ID card system to replace the present student ticket.

This last reason, Brewer pointed out, is in line with the costs of machine photos which only cost the student 50 cents and which are satisfactory for ID card requirements, while the extra $1.50 fee for portrait photos will be required of seniors only.

Shakespeare Convo Offered on May 15

Victor C. Swain, secretary of the English department, has announced that a convocation will be offered on May 15 with Peter Cott, manager of the American Shakespeare Festival Theater, Stratford, speaking on the subject, "The American Shakespeare Festival—Past, Present and Future".

During the convocation, which will take place at 11 a. m. in the Carlson Lecture Hall, Dean Helen M. Scurr, chairman of the English department, will present awards to students who have done outstanding work in their English courses.

by Don Lurie

Champagne was the order of the day for the brothers of KAPPA BETA RHO who celebrated Wistaria Ball in fine style with a before and after cocktail party. Saturday was highlighted with a picnic at Sherwood Island followed by an impromptu stag at the KAPPA house. The brothers opened their hearts in hospitable fashion to other members of various fraternities which was certainly an excellent step in the right direction. Hats off to KBR for taking the initiative in human relations and promoting brotherhood amongst fraternities.

The brothers of UPSILON BETA SIGMA held their first annual picnic last Sunday at 90 Acres. Socially, they have had one of their best years, definitely better than last.

SIGMA PHI ALPHA broke tradition last weekend as all eligible bachelors remained pinless. Perhaps they are the first to realize that pins have a connotation other than financial. Marriage bells will be ringing in June for brothers Al Cohen on the first of the month and Sam Beredino on June 9.

Annual elections were held for the brothers of THETA SIGMA at last week's meeting. The following will constitute next year's executive committee: Larry Miller, chancellor; Bryce MacNaught, vice-chancellor; John Steeneck, treasurer; Vinny Caprio, my fellow columnist as corresponding secretary; Larry Varholak, recording scribe; and Gerry Fox, director of social activities.

Unfortunately, due to circumstances beyond my control, I am unable to give you an accurate account of the proceedings at SIGMA LAMBDA CHI's annual banquet last Saturday night; however, word is out that various organizations are seeking the services of Bert Siegel as social director.

Wild goings on plagued the whole weekend, but the wildest of all remained hush-hush. Marty Schwartz was so engrossed in his farewell to his date while seeing her off at the train, he forgot to get off himself. He had a lovely trip back to Stamford in the wee hours of the morning.

At last week's meeting new officers were elected for the academic year of 1956-57. The reins have been turned over to Murray Klein, president; Larry Levov, vice-president; Henry (Bubby) Frauenhofer, treasurer; Bill Newton, recording secretary; Howard Abner, corresponding secretary; and Ed Wolf and Jose (from Far Rockaway) Mizrahi, co-pledge masters.

The sisters of BETA GAMMA have chosen quite a large group to represent them next fall. Those elected were: Bette Weber, president; Jocelyn Poisson, vice-president; Olive Schindler, corresponding scribe; Maryann Cupo, recording scribe; Mary Healy, treasurer; Mary Martin, IFC representative; Lee Grimes, alternate; Mona Faulkner, alumni representative; Jane Shapiro, social chairman; and Yolanda Delmore and Marilyn Blumenfeld, co-pledge masters. The other handful of members compose the body of the sorority.

"Noose the Goose", a novel booth sponsored by the sisters of CHI SIGMA DELTA was selected as the most original booth at the sophomore carnival. Word has reached me that in a recent elec-

Playboy's British Bomb

Great Britain's usually staid Court of St. James was rocked to its royal heels when Diana Dors, England's Marilyn Monroe, appeared before Queen Elizabeth in this gown. April Playboy, the entertainment magazine for men, presents the famous picture along with a selection of 3-D photos of the British delight for the edification of political science students interested in proper dress for court. Music majors will enjoy a jazz article by King of Swing Benny Goodman.

Guest Speaker Talks On Nurses in Field

The role of the nurse in the health team within the hospital was discussed by Mrs. Elizabeth Statts, director of the nursing service at Montegiore hospital of New York City, at a recent meeting of the nursing students on campus.

Mrs. Statts also talked about the resources within the hospital for the care of long-term illness, the "home care" program, and the hospital's participation in the study of family health maintenance now being carried on by the Health Insurance Plan of New York City.

Summer Entries Normal

According to Dr. Donald Kern, director of admissions, the number of students applying for study in the summer session is approximately the same this year as it was last year at this time. Last year 352 students attended summer school. There will be three sessions: a five week day and night session from June 25-July 27; a ten week day and night session from June 25-August 31; and a five week day and night session from July 30-August 31. Course schedules may be obtained in Junior College Dean Earl M. Bigsbee's office at Cortright Hall.

Fraternity Plaques

The Interfraternity Council has voted to have individual plaques representing all social fraternities on campus hung in Alumni Hall. President William Wright appointed a committee to report at the next meeting. Chairman of the committee is Donald Lurie, representing Sigma Lambda Chi fraternity. Other members are: Arnold Miller, Sigma Omicron Sigma and Allan Merinoff, Pi Omega Chi.

Frosh Top Milford Prep Behind DePace No-Hitter

Bernie "Skip" DePace, hurled a near perfect no-hit, no-run game to lead Lou Saccone's freshman nine to an 8-0 win over Milford Prep at Seaside Park. It was the yearlings' third win in five contests this season as well as DePace's second win and second shutout of the season.

Prep's third baseman, Ernie McVittie, was the only player to reach base off DePace, as he was hit by a pitched ball in the first inning. The husky righthander from Long Island allowed no base on balls, while fanning 12.

Prep hurler Jim Tuttle matched scoreless innings with DePace until the home half of the fourth when the Sacconemen tallied five times. UB scored once more in the fifth and twice again in the sixth of the seven inning contest.

Centerfielder Pete DeGregorio led the nine-hit assault on Tuttle with two singles. Rightfielder Johnny Aslan and catcher Dave Quagliozzi supplied the power with two runs batted in each for the day. Quagliozzi had the big blow of the day, a tremendous double to left in the big five-run fourth inning.

The yearlings travel to Middletown to play Wesleyan tomorrow and then to New Haven on Monday for a return encounter with the Yale University freshmen.

The Knights stopped Yale in their first meeting, by a 4-3 score.

O'Donnell Two-Hits Stags

by Larry Babich

Behind the stellar two-hit pitching of righthander Norm O'Donnell, the Purple Knights won their third contest in seven outings this season by besting their arch rivals, Fairfield University, 2-1 at Seaside Park last Saturday.

The rangy hurler hooked up with Ed Cerrulli, Fairfield's ace right hander in a scoreless duel which ended for Cerrulli in the fourth, when Captain Lorin Berseynak doubled over the right-field trees and scored when centerfielder Jerry McDougall lined a solid single to right.

O'Donnell's shutout also came to a halt in the fifth, when Fairfield tied the score on a single by Cerrulli, a walk, a sacrifice bunt and a sacrifice fly to centerfield. Cerrulli's hit was the first off O'Donnell, who held the Red Stags hitless over the first four frames.

Pedro Tagatac, Fairfield's catcher, led off the sixth with a bunt single but was left stranded as McDougall made a sensational one-handed running catch of a line drive up the left centerfield alley off the bat of third sacker Danny Miko. The catch robbed him of a possible three base hit, which would have scored Tagatac with the lead run.

Harry Peters opened the sixth by reaching first on an error but was forced at second by Steve Butkowsky. On Cerrulli's second pitch to Charley Pike, Butkowsky stole second base. After Pike lined out to rightfield, Berseynak scored Butkowsky with his third hit of the game, another booming double over the rightfield trees.

O'Donnell protected the 2-1 lead over the last three frames as he fanned five of the last nine men to bring his day's strikeout total to 10. It was the righthander's second win of the season as against a lone setback.

The Knights entertain American International College and Danbury State Teachers College in two consecutive home games on Saturday and Monday, while they take to the road on Wednesday to play New Britain Teachers College. AIC, one of UB's tougher foes, defeated the University of Connecticut last week by a 6-4 score. New Britain holds a 13-6 win over Fairfield University.

Shermanmen Split Last Two Meets

Al Sherman's golf team split in their last two encounters to bring their season's record to 4-4. The Knights topped Seton Hall by a 7-2 count behind the fine golfing of Captain Dick Lockwood, who shot a 76 and Al Weiner who shot and outstanding 74.

The Iona College Gaels, in a return match, set back the golfers by a 7-2 score as Weiner again paced the The Sherman-men with a fine 79 score.

The Knights return to action on Monday against American International College at the Mill River Country Club.

THE SCRIBE — May 10, 1956 — Page 3

NO-HIT HURLER: Righthander Bernie "Skip" DePace became the first pitcher in UB Freshmen history to hurl a no-hit, no-run game as he stopped Milford Prep. The Knights won 8-0.

HOWLAND'S

ALONG PARK PLACE

by Vinny Caprio

Once again the University's beloved Wistaria cast its magic spell upon the young lovers of our campus. Everywhere you went during the weekend, the faint sounds of "Will you wear this?" or "Yes, I'd be very happy to", could be heard. Romance and Wistaria reigned supreme. It's getting so bad, that the "I'm eligible" list is down to an all time low.

Carolyn Brennan, hailing from Waterbury and Linden Hall, a Dental Hygiene student and corresponding secretary of Chi Sigma Delta, received the KBR pin of Jim Badami this weekend.

The newly elected President, Murray Klein, pinned Roberta Rabishaw, nursing student residing in Schiott Hall. Another member of SLX, Howie Bader, pinned Eva Bernadine of Park Hall.

After four courses in economics this semester, Dave G. has found the secret of how two can live as cheaply as one. This is the reason he gives for his future June 16 wedding with Peggy Mihalco of Bridgeport. This must be a result of Dr. Apel's informative lectures.

UB's peppy cheerleader, Anita McEntegert, received the AGP pin from "clown" Ed Wacum. Stamford Hall is cheering them on.

POC's Sweetheart for '55, Bettanne Fisch, eliminated her POC connections by accepting the KBR pin of football star Don Kirchbaum. Not to be outdone by his roommate Kirch, Don Knapp, smiling secretary of KBR, is contemplating the same with a certain lovely from Park Hall. All he has to do is convince her to say "Yes".

Marshall Dickman, varsity fencer, parried for and won the heart of Schiott Hall's petite Phyllis.

Home Administration Presented in Autumn

A curriculum in "home administration" will be offered in the fall, President James H. Halsey announced. Successful completion of the two year course will lead to the degree of Associates in Art.

Basic courses in the program will include study and practical experience in areas of home management, consumer economics, child growth and development, health and home nursing, food and nutrition, clothing, interior decoration and marriage and the family relationships.
